

Downtown Vision's Third Thursdays

Objective

To provide on the Third Thursday of every month, a pedestrian-friendly and central place that encourages local residents and community visitors to shop with our Main Street merchants, eat some of our local vendor fare and at Downtown restaurants, listen to the various genres of music provided by musicians, and look at the art provided by local and area artists.

Who Is Involved?

Garden City Downtown Vision
Garden City Arts
Musicians

Main Street Merchants
Sandhill Arts Association

What Is This Event?

An after-work Main Street event from 5 to 8 p.m. on the third Thursday of every month that features food and craft vendors, artists' displays within participating retail and service businesses, musicians performing on street corners and during winter months within businesses, and retailers providing exceptional in-house specials worthy of patrons coming Downtown to shop.

When?

Third Thursday of Every Month

Where?

On Main Street, from Pine Street on the north to Fulton Street on the south

Why?

To ring Downtown cash registers and support the fine and performing arts

How much of a Downtown Vision commitment?

For the first year, GCDV spearheads the publicity, schedules artists/musicians, develops monthly themes, work with local merchants to enhance their in-store merchandising and Third Thursday offerings, while at the same time support the revitalized Retailers Committee to take over these duties for the second year and thereafter
